JAMES R. SOVEREIGN RETIRED.

Relieved of His Master-Workmanship by the Knights of Labor. LOUISVILLE, KY., November 12.

James R. Sovereign, who has been general master workman of the Knights of Labor for the past four years, was this afternoon relieved of his official position by the General Assembly, which has been in session in this city since Monday been in session in this city since Monday last.

Under ordinary circumstances, Mr. Sovereign's term of office would not expire until the next meeting. This, however, it is said, makes no difference with the order, whose general officers during a meeting are always in the hands of the assembly, and can be chosen and deposed at the will of the majority.

Along with Sovereign there were three other officers retired—viz. T. B. McGuire, general worthy foreman, of Amsterdam. N. Y.; Danie! Brown, of Montana, and Thomas Martin, of Minnesota, members of the Executive Committee.

Sarsfield Fitz-patrick, of Montreat, and Henry Bostock, of Ashley, No. 300. Glassworkers, were chosen as the two members of the Executive Board, the third member being Andrew D. Best.

This very decided change in the corps of general officers of the Knights of Labor will cause considerable astonishment in labor circles throughout the country. Says to those who were on the 'Inside,' so to speak, for the past three months, there was absolutely nothing of it known.

ALL BUSINESS AMICABLE.

ALL BUSINESS AMICABLE.

All the business transacted at to-day's meeting went through in the most amicable manner possible.

At the morning session the remnants of routine business which had been left over were disposed of.

The afternoon session was principally taken up with the delivery of Mr. Sovereign's annual address, which was listened to by the delegates with the greatest interest, and greeted with juthusiasm. Mr. Sovereign's name was the first mentioned in nomination, but he immediately rose and said he would not accept. No one opposed Mr. Hicks. The other officers were also chosen with as much ease. The assembly was then declared to be formally organized.

The regular order of business will be taken up to-morrow.

NEW TRIAL FOR THORN. Jury Discharged and Case Continued Until the 22d.

NEW YORK, November 12.-When the Queens County Court was opened at Long Island City to-day it was represented to Judge Smith that Magnus Larsen, one of the jurors sitting in the case of Martin Thorn, accused of the murder of William Guldensuppe, had been obliged to submit to a surgical operation for appendicitis, and that under the most favorable conditions he would not be able to resume his seat in the jury-box in less than three weeks. It therefore became a question as to how the case should be proceeded with.

Mr. Howe, counsel for Thorn, suggested the retention of the rest of the jurors who have sat in the trial thus far and the impanelling of a twelfth juror, to whom the proceedings should be read from the court reporter's notes. District-Attorney Youngs asked for time in which to look up the authorities before deciding to accept or reject the proposition of counsel for the defence, and Judge Smith adjourned further consideration of the case until 1 o'clock this afternoon.

After an hour's consultation between the District Attorney and Mr. Howe, the latter, emerging from an ante-room, said to the waiting reporters:

"Gentlemen, I can now tell you positively that there will be an entirely new jury selected. I have just spoken to Mr. Youngs, and found that he and his associates are not in favor of adopting the plan which I proposed in court this "Mr. Youngs will have a new panel of 200 talesmen made up, and the subpoenaes will be served immediately." District-Attorney Youngs a few moments later confirmed the announcement made by Mr. Howe.

The jury was formally discharged and the case continued till November 22d.

MAIL TRAIN HELD UP. Robbers Get Little, However-No. Treasure Aboard.

KANSAS CITY, MO., November 12.-The Missouri Pacific passenger train, known as the St. Louis fast mail, which leaves Kansas City at 9 P. M., was held up by five masked robbers at 9:30 o'clock tonight, at the Chicago and Alton crossing, just opposite Independence, Mo., and less than a mile from the famous Blue Cut, in which three train robberies have oc-curred within the past year. Two of the robbers were disguised as women, and when the engineer saw them swinging red lanterns across the tracks, an apparent signal of danger, he did not hesitate to stop. The engine crew were immediately covered with revolvers. Conductor Dennison and Brakeman Michael stepped out to see what was the matter, and were greeted with a volley of bullets.

The conductor and brakeman were compelled to cut the express- and baggagecars from the rest of the train, and the engineer and fireman made to get down rom the cab. The robbers jumped aboard and took the engine and express-car about two miles further east, where they stopped and compelled Express-Messenger Williams to open his car. He offered no resistance, as he carried no treasure. The robbers had evidently intended to stop the St. Louis limited night express, which leaves Kansas City at a later hour, and were greatly surprised upon discovering that the cars which they had captured contained nothing of value. In their rage they pounced upon the express messenger and went through his pockets, but $2.8 was all they secured. After this they left the train and disappeared in the darkness, After a delay of over an hour the train was made up again, and started on fts

The County Marshal and his men were at the scene of the robbery very soon after the affair took place, but there every probability that the robbers were safely in Independence or Kansas City before any organized effort was made to capture them.

On good authority it is learned that it was with Mr. Sovereign's most hearty approval that he steps down and out. The same holds good as to the other officers who were relieved.

Mr. Sovereign stated to-night that he wished retirement. He wanted rest from the labor which the office entailed upon him.

MR. WEST ON THE STAND. This concluded Mr. Folkes's testimony and Mr. Clyde B. West was called. Mr. Folkes first examined him as follows: Mr. Folkes: Mr. West, it has been stated that I called at your office and told you I had received $50 from you.

That's a lie, Mr. Lecky: Mr. West, you will have to frame your sentences in more temperate words Mr. West: I am here to answer a

A FALSE CHARGE STAMPED. At this juncture Mr. W. D. Mr. Chesterman said that there was not a single word of truth in the statement that the Dispatch had sent any message to Mr. Mahood or to the S to a question from the chairman, he said he had conversed with Colonel Cowardin and Mr. H. T. Ellyson on the subject, and spoke for them as well as for himself. Mr. Chesterman further said that Colonel Cowardin, Mr. Ellyson, and himself were the only officers of the Dispatch Company, and no one else was authorized to speak for it. Here, in response to a remark from some one, Mr.
Polkes stated that he had never told Mr. Mahood what Mr. Mahood said in his letter as to this matter.
Mr. Chesterman's testimony was concluded in about two or three minutes, no one desiring to cross-question him.

THE CHECK ONLY A LOAN. Mr. West was recalled and questioned by Mr. Lamb, who asked: Did you tele graph the American Book Company con-cerning the Massey resolutions?

Mr. West: I simply refer you to the telegraph offices, with carte blanche to investigate any and all telegrams I may have sent through them.

Mr. Lamb: Did you not expose

Mr. West: I have been in the habit for Mr. West: I have been in the habit for some time of both borrowing from, and loaning to, Mr. Womack, and at the time that check passed between us he owed me $20. He gave me $125, loaning me the difference of $105. Subsequently, he needed money, and I paid him $30, and gave him a sixty-days note for the remaining $75. This note is due Decem-ber 4th, and I paid $1.06 interest on it.

Mr. West: Because I considered it an Mr. Lamb: Isn't it your duty to notify Womack of anything that may hap-pen in Richmond which might affect the American Book Company's interests?

Mr. West: No, sir; it is not.

This concluded Mr. West's testimony. GRAND-COMMANDER COX.

Mr. E. P. Cox was next sworn. He testified to being Grand Commander of the Grand Camp of Virginia, Sons of Confederate Veterans. He appointed the History Committee of the Grand Camp, and said Mr. Folkes expressed his pleasure of being placed thereon as he sure at being placed thereon, as he wanted very much to be on it. Witness said that the Sons' committeemen had the same vote on the general History Committee as the veterans, and that it might be possible for a Son committee-man, in event of a close vote, to cast the decisive vote in favor of any history that might be brought up for consideration.

Mr. Maury questioned the witness concerning the allegations against him, and witness said Mr. Lecky told him he had learned that the two members of the camp who were alleged to have been bribed were Minitree Folkes and M. F. Maury. Mr. Lecky then took the stand, and said he had gotten his information from Mr. Duce, and that Mr. Duce had said Mr. West had told him that he had paid money to both Folkes and Maury. MR. MAURY INDIGNANT. Mr. Maury took the stand, and told his story torsely and succinctly. He told of his having argued against the Massey resolutions, and then stated that two days ago Mr. Folkes had told him that a rumor was rife charging him with having accepted a bribe. He replied that he could not attempt to fight rumors in the air, but if any man would confront him and prefer such a charge against him he would slap him in the face, and call him a liar afterwards. He denied most positively that Mr. West or any one else had ever approached him in behalf of the American Book Company or any other publishing-house. He said he was in no wise connected with any publishing-house, and knew nothing of any bribery, or attempt thereat. His opposition to the Massey resolutions, he said, was the outgrowth of a bellef that it would be unwise for the camp to take any such action.

the camp to take any such action. Several gentlemen spoke informally in behalf of Mr. Maury, and his father censured his old comrades who had heard the rumors concerning his son for not having informed him of them.

MAJOR RANDOLPH'S ADVICE. Major N. V. Randolph testified that several members of the Sons' History Committee had come to him for advice, and he had told them to suggest to Folkes the propriety of resigning, and to further suggest to him that he had best take the bold stand that he was alterney for the company.

Major Randolph gave a brief history of the introduction of the Brander resolution into Lee Camp, and expressed the hope that the investigation would probe the charges to the bottom.

Major Brander here explained to Mr. Maury his reason for not notifying him of the rumors concerning his son. KNEW OF NO ATTEMPT.

Mr. J. E. B. Stuart, a member of the History Committee, was called. He knew of no attempt to bribe a member of the camp, but he had been approached by a Mr. Tompkins, who said he represented Dr. Jones's history. This, he thought, was on the day before the final meeting on the Massey resolution. Witness said he was in no wise influenced by any book concern, and knew nothing of his own knowledge concerning the alle gations. Mr. Tompkuns, he said, had asked him to take no action on the Massey resolution, but he declined to make any promise.

Mr. W. R. Walden, another member of the History Committee, was examined, but he knew nothing of his own knowledge which would assist the committee in its investigation.

This concluded the evidence of the members of the committee, and it being then after 12:30 o'clock, an adjournment was taken. Mr. West stating that he would be out of the city until Wedneswould be out of the city unit wentes-day morning, and as he was desirous of being present, it was decided that the committee should not convene until next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, when the investigation will be resumed in Lee Camp Hall.
